

How much historical data do you store?

All of the information you provide to MoneyPath is stored on a secure offline database. This information is never sold is only shared with the banks you are matched to your request.