

The slowest step in acquiring a commercial loan is the lender's collection your business's records. For their own records, the lender will need documentation of all of the information about your business that you previously provided. Because you know that four lenders will be contacting you after applying through MoneyPath, it will be helpful to have four copies of these documents prepared for the lenders.